Transportation Services Available for Florence Survivors

Need a ride? Transportation services are now available for North Carolina residents affected by Hurricane Florence. Call the number for your county transit authority (listed on the back of this flyer) to schedule a ride to and/or from:

Disaster Recovery Centers or shelters
Meetings with your insurance adjuster or home inspector
Temporary housing or work
Medical appointments
Other essential life services

Call to schedule a ride from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.
Rides can be scheduled for evenings and weekends.

When calling, please have the following information available:
Your pick-up and drop-off location, number of passengers, day and time and if you require an accommodation for an access and/or functional need.
